Who We Are

EL COLOMBIANO® is a weekly publication founded in 1995 by Alfredo Mantilla, who continues as director-editor.

35.000 copies every week with free distribution in about 1,500 points in Southern and Central Florida covering strategically our area of influence.

Our pages reflect what our community seeks for: Content, quality analysis and comments that reflect our true identity. Our name reflects our nationality unambiguously.

According to Census 2010 figures, Colombians are the second ethnic population in Florida surpassed by Cubans in South Florida and Puerto Ricans in Central Florida, an estimate of one million of Colombian immigrants in Florida.

Today we print 32 pages on average on Friday of each week. With a base of 4 readers per copy and a distribution system that allows us to cover our area of affluence with people who share an idiosyncrasy that guarantees results by our advertising effectiveness.

We put together the best media to reach hispanics in Florida, the message is yours.
